Poorniyati updates : Dew Drops

Tuition

- Tuitions happen from Monday to Friday (6 to 8 PM)
- The children do their homework for 1 hour and after that study for another hour. Devika is our dedicated tutor who teaches them.
- Snacks, such as channa, peanuts, so on are served.
- Once a month moral values, games and creative activities are conducted for them.
- Also for the children (James and Sanjay) who are appearing for public board exams more personal tutoring happens for them.

Awareness Skit

- On the 7th of July an awareness skit on the 'Importance of Education' was conducted by a group of youngsters.
- The children enjoyed the performance thoroughly.
- There were plenty of laughs and hilarious moments for them to enjoy.
- After which some snacks and treats were given to them which they enjoyed happily. More importantly they were able to see that their dreams of becoming an IPS officer, a teacher, a doctor and so on are achievable and it is in taking this step to being dedicated in their studies that they can see this being accomplished.
- These youth have shown interest in conducting activities such as these on a regular basis and are very keen in investing into these children's lives.

Parents - Teacher Meet

- On the 10th of September our Teacher, Jansi, came and spoke to the children and their parents.
- Clarity and a plan was reinstated to what happens during tuition hours
- Students were encouraged and motivated to come regularly for tuition. Ensuring their efforts would not go unnoticed with rewards guaranteed for regular attendance and improvement in their studies.
- Parents were instructed and encouraged to send their children regularly and the paramount importance of education was reinforced.
- To conclude the meeting snacks, tea and chocolates were given.

Games - Turf

- On October 10 & December 2nd the boys from Dew Drops tuition were taken to a nearby turf to play cricket and football. It was a good time of fun and bonding.
- Apart from growing in knowledge, it is our desire to see them grow in character and maturity as well.
- These times of playing help in instilling discipline and unity.

Beyond Education

- During the children's quarterly exam leave we conducted a moral class along with a time of arts and crafts.
- We started with a game of passing the paper ball to music. Whoever was caught with the ball when the music stopped had to dance, sing or tell a story. We were able to discover the various talents that our kids have.
- Then there was a participative and engaging story. 'Our words have potential for good and bad and there is power in encouraging the other person', this was the moral that was conveyed.
- This was followed by some application where each kid appreciated each and every other kid with some positive quality about them. Every time someone was appreciated there were loud rounds of applause in agreement.
- Lastly they were taught an arts and craft 'Jumping Frog' Origami, which they absolutely enjoyed making.

Teachers Appreciation at Pallikarnai Govt school

Since December 2022, Jansi, our teacher at Poorniyati, has been volunteering to teach “difficult students” of class VI to class IX at Pallikaranai Government School. These are problem students whom their regular teachers found difficult to manage. Challenges the students faced, were in reading and writing Tamil & English.

Thanks to her persistence and dedication, these students are able to read and write in their respective languages now. Jansi has been teaching, seeking no compensation of any kind from the school and serves out of pure compassion and a Burden.

This Teacher's Day, she was appreciated and commended by the Headmistress of the school for her dedication and hard work.
